Jayden Blue and the Sword in his Shadow
A World So Close – Book One

Find what no one else can find, in a world that only you and your best friend can see: Look inside your heart.

Jayden Blue starts each school day with an attempt to get through the front door without being attacked by his cats, Hex and Halo. Outside, he waits for the bus with his best friend, Raylene Hawkins, who lives right next door.

One morning, he notices something no one else does: nobody seems able to see that they're all missing part of the world. Dreading having to give a report in front of his English class, he and Raylene—with the help of his cats—explore a world so close that no one else can see. And in his shadow there, he finds just what he needs.
